CIRCUIT COURT CLERK
BY RC C.C.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This divorce case came on for trial on August 17, 2017 and September 20, 2017.

The Court took the case under advisement.

On January 9, 2017, ██████████ (Mother or Wife) filed her Complaint for divorce from Curtis Gregory Walker (Father or Husband) (collectively Parties). Mr. Walker filed his Answer and Counter-Complaint on August 3, 2017.

The Parties have resided in McMinn County for more than six months prior to the filing of the Complaint.

Husband filed a Motion to Require a Drug Screen. The Court denies the motion as the Court finds no evidence to require a drug test and Wife testified she is randomly drug tested at work.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I. CREDIBILITY

The Court heard from eighteen witnesses and accepted thirteen exhibits into evidence. Husband tried to portray Wife as not credible with regard to an incident at Wal-Mart and as to a loan using her mother's name. However, the Court observed both Parties on the stand and found Wife to be credible. The Court did not find Husband to be a credible witness. The Court found the other witnesses to be credible. The Court finds some bias for Wife in the testimony of [REDACTED] Wife's mother, and some bias for Husband in the testimony of [REDACTED] Husband's mother, and some bias for Husband in the testimony of [REDACTED] Husband's sister.

II. DIVORCE

In her complaint, Mrs. Walker alleged Mr. Walker was guilty of inappropriate marital conduct, Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-101(a)(11). Mr. Walker admitted infidelity under oath and the Court finds that the grounds of Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-101(a)(3) and (11) are met.

Mr. Walker counter-claimed for divorce on the grounds of inappropriate marital conduct, and testified that Wife abused her pain medication. The Court does not find Mr. Walker established these grounds, but instead finds that Wife simply takes strong medicine for migraines. The Court found Husband had little sympathy for the Wife's health issues.

III. DIVISION OF MARITAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

In a divorce action, the division of property begins with classifying the Parties' property as either separate or marital. Miller v. Miller, 81 S.W.3d 771, 775 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2001). The Court finds all the property of value belonging to the Parties is marital property, including the retirement accounts. T.C.A. §36-4-121(b)(1)(B)(ii).

Once the property is classified as either marital or separate, the court is to place a reasonable value on the property that is subject to division. Edmisten v. Edmisten, No. M2001-0081-R3-CV, 2003 WL 21077990 at *11 (May 13, 2003).

After valuing the assets, the court is to make an equitable division of the property.

Miller, 81 S.W.3d at 775.

In making an equitable division of the property, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-121(c)(1), the Court considers the following factors and makes the following findings:

1) The duration of the marriage:

The Parties were married

It was the first marriage for Wife and the third marriage for Husband. The Parties have two sons of the marriage, (Children).

- 2) The age, physical and mental health, vocational skills, employability, earning capacity, estate, financial liabilities and financial needs of each of the parties;

Husband's

Wife's

Both graduated from high school. Both are employed at good jobs. Husband works for the Tennessee Highway Patrol (THP) and his stipulated annual income that Husband was in the Marine Corps. Wife works for the University of Tennessee

Prior to

Agricultural Department and her stipulated annual income

Husband is in good health. Wife suffers from Both Parties enjoy good mental health. The Parties have incurred a lot of debt during the marriage.

- 3) The tangible or intangible contribution by one party to the education, training or increased earning power of the other party;

The Court finds no evidence as to this factor.

- 4) The relative ability of each party for future acquisitions of capital assets and income;

Husband has the greater ability to acquire assets in the future as his income is much higher than Wife's.

- 5)(A) The contribution of each party to the acquisition, preservation, appreciation, depreciation or dissipation of the marital or separate property, including the contribution of a party to the marriage as homemaker, wage earner or parent, with the contribution of a party as homemaker or wage earner to be given the same weight if each party has fulfilled its role;

Wife contributed as a homemaker and as a wage earner.

Husband contributed economically to the marriage.

The Court finds both contributed equally.

Husband lived an extravagant lifestyle for their means. He earns _____ and has a truck, and other expensive toys.

- 6) The value of the separate property of each party;

There is no separate property of value.

Wife has her grandmother's table.

7) The estate of each party at the time of the marriage;

Husband earns a salary

Wife earns a salary

The Parties have some small savings.

Husband's

8) The economic circumstances of each party at the time the division of property is to become effective;

The Husband earns more than double what Wife earns.

9) The tax consequences to each party, costs associated with the reasonably foreseeable sale of the asset, and other reasonably foreseeable expenses associated with the asset;

Husband will incur some tax liability upon liquidation of his retirement account (see, infra).

10) The amount of social security benefits available to each spouse;

Husband will have greater social security benefits as his income is higher.

11) Such other factors as are necessary to consider the equities between the parties.

Husband has spent a lot of the Parties' money on "toys" such as his truck, three four-wheelers, a boat and a camper while Wife, who paid the bills, took out loans to pay for all of it.

Marital debt, like marital property, should be divided equitably in accordance with the factors in Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-121(c) and in light of (1) which party incurred the debt, (2) the purpose of the debt, (3) which party benefitted from incurring the debt, and (4) which party is better able to repay the debt. See Cutsinger v. Cutsinger, 917 S.W.2d 238 at 243 (Tenn. App. 1995). Marital debts need not be divided in precisely the same manner as the marital assets, although they frequently follow their related assets. Kinard v. Kinard, 986 S.W.2d 220, 233 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1998).

Husband took out a HELOC on the marital residence. The balance as of August 7, Husband testified that Wife was aware of the HELOC. However, only Husband's name is on the HELOC. Husband claims [redacted] went to home improvements and debt consolidation but he could not testify with certainty as to what amounts. Wife claims [redacted] went to the household. Husband testified that Wife could access the HELOC funds. Wife testified that Husband solely accessed the HELOC and she did not know what he spent the money on. The Court finds [redacted] of the HELOC went to home improvements, debt consolidation or otherwise for the family.

Husband purchased his truck in April of 2016. He purchased the camper in May or June of 2016. He purchased the boat in 2016. He met his girlfriend in May or June of 2016.

The Oak Ridge National Credit Union loan (ORNL) [redacted] Husband testified that this loan is secured by the truck and also secured by either the boat or the camper. Husband purchased the boat [redacted] and purchased the camper [redacted] to [redacted]

Husband says he used the equity in the truck to get the ORNL loan. Husband also testified that some of the [redacted] is for the purchase of either the boat or camper. Since the HELOC is solely in Husband's name and since Husband had enough equity in the truck to obtain the ORNL loan for truck and boat/camper, the Court finds that it is more likely that Husband used the _____ in HELOC proceeds for his sole benefit, such as for a down payment on the truck. Thus the Court determines that while both Parties benefitted _____ of the HELOC proceeds, Husband of the HELOC debt for his benefit.

The mortgage is solely in the Wife's name.

The division of assets is to be equitable but not necessarily equal. King v. King, 986 S.W.2d 216 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1998). Wherefore the Court preliminarily divides the assets and liabilities as follows:

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

HUSBAND

FMV

The Court specifically finds that the _____ and _____ should not be counted in either Husband's or Wife's assets. The Court finds the Glock-full-40 and the Glock-full-357 belong to Children and will not be counted in either Husband's or Wife's assets. The Court further determines that the Glocks should either be placed in a gun safe or returned to Husband's possession.

The Court further finds the _____ belong to the Children and should not be counted to either Husband's or Wife's assets. The Children _____ at their grandparents.

The Court finds that the remaining items on Exhibits 2 and 11 are Children's or are of nominal value.

Wife and Children will remain in the marital residence as it is near the Children's schools, and they have lived there for several years.

III. CUSTODY

Tenn. Code Ann. §36-6-106 provides in pertinent part:

- (a) In a suit for divorce requiring the court to make a custody determination regarding a minor child, the determination shall be made on the basis of the best interest of the child. In taking into account the child's best interest, the court shall order a custody arrangement that permits both parents to enjoy the maximum participation possible in the life of the child consistent with the factors set out in this subsection (a), the location of the residences of the parents, the child's need for stability and all other relevant factors. The court shall consider all relevant factors, including the following, where applicable:

Emphasis added

- (1) The strength, nature, and stability of the child's relationship with each parent, including whether one (1) parent has performed the majority of parenting responsibilities relating to the daily needs of the child;

Wife has performed the majority of the parenting responsibilities. Husband has coached his sons' ball teams. The current relationship between the Husband and the Children is strained due to the Husband's affair.

- (2) Each parent's or caregiver's past and potential for future performance of parenting responsibilities, including the willingness and ability of each of the parents and caregivers to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing parent-child relationship between the child and both of the child's parents, consistent with the best interest of the child. In determining the willingness of each of the parents and caregivers to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing parent-child relationship between the child and both of the child's parents, the court shall consider the likelihood of each parent and caregiver to honor and facilitate court ordered parenting arrangements and rights, and the court shall further consider any history of either parent or any caregiver denying parenting time to either parent in violation of a court order;

(Emphasis added)

Wife is willing to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing relationship between the Children and their father. Husband blames Wife because his sons have not visited much since he left. The Court interviewed the older son and finds his decision to not see his dad was his own choice and was not influenced by Mother. Father told son to lie to his Mother about the texts from the girlfriend.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

(3) Refusal to attend parenting seminar.

The Court finds that this factor favors neither Party.

(4) The disposition of each parent to provide the child with food, clothing, medical care, education and other necessary care;

Husband has displayed a selfishness toward preferring his wants over the Children's needs. His proposed allocation of assets demonstrates his selfishness as he tries to attribute the Children's clothes, bedding and toys as Wife's assets.

Husband has rarely visited with the boys since separation. He blames this on Wife discouraging the Children to visit, but the Court does not find that to be the case.

Just prior to trial Husband took the Children to buy school clothes.

driving. Father began berating and made him pull off the interstate because Father saw that had texted his Mother. Father accused of lying about what he texted. Thus even though Father provides for the Children, his primary concern is his own selfish interest even to the extent of placing his Children's lives in danger over a small annoyance.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

(5) The degree to which a parent has been the primary caregiver, defined as the parent who has taken the greater responsibility for performing parental responsibilities;

Wife has taken the greater responsibility for the parenting.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

- (6) The love, affection, and emotional ties existing between each parent and the child;

At this time the Children are closer to their Mother, does not wish to visit with Father.

- (7) The emotional needs and developmental level of the child;

The Court finds this factor favors neither parent.

- (8) The moral, physical, mental and emotional fitness of each parent as it relates to their ability to parent the child;

Husband has a bad temper and berates the Children, but both Parties are fit parents.

The Court finds this factor favors neither Party.

- (9) The child's interaction and interrelationships with siblings, other relatives and step-relatives, and mentors, as well as the child's involvement with the child's physical surroundings, school, or other significant activities;

The Children spend time with the maternal grandparents. The Children have not spent as much time with the paternal grandparents as of late because the paternal grandfather is ill.

The Court finds this factor favors neither Party.

- (10) The importance of continuity in the child's life and the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment;

The Children are residing in the marital home in their school district.

attends

The Father lives two counties away from the school district in Meigs County in a small camper.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

- (11) Evidence of physical or emotional abuse to the child, to the other parent or to any other person;

The Court finds the Husband has berated the Wife and Children.

Husband's testimony demonstrated his arrogance toward his Wife and Children.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

- (12) The character and behavior of any other person who resides in or frequents the home of a parent and such person's interactions with the child;

The Husband's girlfriend sometimes stays in the camper with Father. The Court finds this is not an ideal situation for the Children to also stay overnight with Father.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

- (13) The reasonable preference of the child if twelve (12) years of age or older;

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

- (14) Each parent's employment schedule and the court may make accommodations consistent with those schedules.

Husband works two weeks on day shift from either 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. or from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Then Husband works 2 weeks on night shift from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. or 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. He works 5 out of 7 days. He gets 5 weekends out of 21 weeks. He is off Wednesday to Thursday one week, then Monday to Tuesday one week and then Saturday to Sunday on another week.

Wife works a basic day job.

The Court finds this factor favors Mother.

A court is not permitted to punish an adulterous parent for “an extramarital affair by awarding custody” to the other parent. Sutherland v. Sutherland, 831 S.W.2d 283, 286 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1991). In other words, “[a] parent’s sexual infidelity or indiscretion does not, ipso facto[,] disqualify that parent from receiving custody of his/her children.” Nelson, 66 S.W.3d at 902 (quoting Varley, 934 S.W.2d at 666-67); see also Parker v. Parker, 986 S.W.2d 557, 563 (Tenn. 1999). However, in applying the statutory factors set forth in Tenn. Code Ann. §36-6-106(a), a court “may consider the effect of a parent’s extramarital affair on the children and on the parent’s fitness as a custodian.” Nelson, 66 S.W.3d at 902. When the parent’s activities “involve neglect of the children, however such neglect is a consideration in determining the children’s best interest.” Id. (quoting Varley, 934 S.W.2d at 667); see also Mimms v. Mimms, 780 S.W.2d 739, 745 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1989).

Lockmiller v. Lockmiller, No. E2002-02586-COA-R3-CV, 2003 WL 23094418 (December 30, 2003).

In this case Husband moved out of the marital residence in McMinn County and into the Parties’ camper at a campsite in Meigs County. His girlfriend often spends the night with him. There is no room in the camper for the two sons. Husband says he intends to get an apartment near the boys’ school, but as of trial he had not done so even though he left the marital residence in January 2017. The Court determines that Husband’s request for equal parenting time is to reduce his support obligation rather than spending time with his sons.

resents his Father for the affair. The Court finds Father is more interested in the new girlfriend at this time he is than spending time with his sons.

Parenting Schedule

From all of the above the Court denotes Wife as the Primary Residential Parent. For both parents to have maximum participation in the lives of their Children within the constraints of the Father's work schedule, the Court concludes that Father may parent Children one night a week, to have the Children home by 9:00 p.m., and Husband may parent again on his Saturday - Sunday weekend in his rotation. Father will have Children on Father's Day. Mother will have Children on Mother's Day.

The Parties will divide the Children's birthdays on even and odd years. Each parent will have two consecutive weeks of summer vacation exclusively with the Children. The regular residential schedule will apply for Fall and Spring Breaks. On odd years, Mother shall parent the Children from 8:00 p.m. on December 24 until 3:00 p.m. on December 25. Husband will parent the Children on odd years from 10:00 a.m. December 24 until 8:00 p.m. on December 24 and from 3:00 p.m. on December 25 until 8:00 p.m. on December 26. In even years, this schedule will be reversed. For all other times during the winter/Christmas vacation, the Parties will use the regular residential schedule. (This gives Father approximately 100 days annually with Children). The Court finds this schedule is in the best interests of the Children.

The Children are not required to visit Father. Husband must complete a parenting class by March 31, 2018.

IV. CHILD SUPPORT

The Wife has been carrying the health insurance for the family. The Court finds it is in the best interest for the Children to keep the same carrier. Mother will continue to carry the insurance. At the pendente lite hearing the evidence was that the insurance was for family coverage of health, dental, and vision. Under Tenn. Rules and Reg. 1240-2-4-.08(2)(d)(IV) the portion attributable to the Children is included in the worksheet.

The Parties will divide any uncovered medical, dental, vision and/or psychological expenses. Husband shall maintain life insurance of $50,000 until reaches 18 years of age.

Day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the Children will be made by the parent with whom the Children are residing for that day. Major decisions regarding the Children will be made jointly. Disputes regarding the Parenting Plan will be resolved by mediation.

Plaintiff's counsel shall prepare a permanent parenting plan with Mother as PRP, computing exact number of days with Mother from the parenting schedule above, with Mother carrying the insurance, and using the stipulated income of the Parties to determine the child support.

V. ALIMONY

A court may award alimony to be paid by one spouse to or for the benefit of the other or out of either spouse's property according to the nature of the case and the circumstances of the parties. Tenn. Code Ann. §36-5-121(a). The factors a court is to consider in awarding alimony are listed in T.C.A. §36-5-121(i). The most important factors for a trial court to consider in whether to award alimony are the disadvantaged spouse's need and the obligor spouse's ability to pay. Of these two, the disadvantaged spouse's need is the threshold consideration. Riggs v. Riggs, 250 S.W.3d 453, 457 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2007).

Tennessee Code Annotated §36-5-121, provides in pertinent part:

(c)(1) Spouses have traditionally strengthened the family unit through private arrangements whereby one (1) spouse focuses on nurturing the personal side of the marriage, including the care and nurturing of the children, while the other spouse focuses primarily on building the economic strength of the family unit. This arrangement often results in economic detriment to the spouse who subordinated such spouse's own personal career for the benefit of the marriage. It is the public policy of this state to encourage and support marriage, and to encourage family arrangements that provide for the rearing of healthy and productive children who will become healthy and productive citizens of our state.

(2) The general assembly finds that the contributions to the marriage as homemaker or parent are of equal dignity and importance as economic contributions to the marriage. Further, where one spouse suffers economic detriment for the benefit of the marriage, the general assembly finds that the economically disadvantaged spouse's standard of living after the divorce should be reasonably comparable to the standard of living enjoyed during the marriage or to the post-divorce standard of living expected to be available to the other spouse, considering the relevant statutory factors and the equities between the parties.

(d)(1) The court may award rehabilitative alimony, alimony in futuro, also known as periodic alimony, transitional alimony, or alimony in solido, also known as lump sum alimony or a combination of these, as provided in this subsection (d).

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that a spouse, who is economically disadvantaged relative to the other spouse, be rehabilitated, whenever possible, by the granting of an order for payment of rehabilitative alimony. . . .

(g)(1) Transitional alimony means a sum of money payable by one (1) party to, or on behalf of, the other party for a determinate period of time. Transitional alimony is awarded when the court finds that rehabilitation is not necessary, but the economically disadvantaged spouse needs assistance to adjust to the economic consequences of a divorce, legal separation or other proceeding where spousal support may be awarded, such as a petition for an order of protection.

(h)(1) Alimony in solido, also known as lump sum alimony, is a form of long term support, the total amount of which is calculable on the date the decree is entered, but which is not designated as transitional alimony. Alimony in solido may be paid in installments; provided, that the payments are ordered over a definite period of time and the sum of the alimony to be paid is ascertainable when awarded. The purpose of this form of alimony is to provide financial support to a spouse. In addition, alimony is solido may include attorney fees, where appropriate.

In determining whether to award alimony the Court considers the following factors under Tenn. Code Ann. 36-5-121(i):

- (1) The relative earning capacity, obligations, needs, and financial resources of each party, including income from pension, profit sharing or retirement plans and all other sources;

Husband has the greater earning capacity. Neither party has other sources of income.

Husband has the larger retirement accounts. Husband says he cannot afford alimony but he has been able to attend his girlfriend's horse shows in Shelbyville.

Husband makes

Husband's take home after he has to cover his insurance will be approximately

Wife's take home without Husband on the insurance will be approximately _____ Wife's monthly expenses taken from Exhibit 1 to the pendente lite hearing are:

This leaves only _____ for groceries, gas, clothing, and incidentals.

- (2) The relative education and training of each party, the ability and opportunity of each party to secure such education and training, and the necessity of a party to secure further education and training to improve such party's earnings capacity to a reasonable level;

Both Husband and Wife are high school graduates. Wife has been employed at UT Department of Agriculture for many years. Husband has been with the THP for 4 years. Prior to that Husband was in law enforcement as a court officer. The Court finds there is no necessity of a party to secure further education.

- (3) The duration of the marriage;

The Parties were married on _____ This is a 17 year marriage.

- (4) The age and mental condition of each party;

They are both mentally competent.

- (5) The physical condition of each party, including, but not limited to, physical disability or incapacity due to chronic debilitating disease;

Husband is in good health. Wife has

The Parties have a

The Court finds no evidence as to this factor.

- (7) The separate assets of each party, both real and personal, tangible and intangible;

The Court finds that neither Party has separate assets of value.

- (8) The provisions made with regard to the marital property, as defined in section 36-4-121;

Wife is receiving the marital residence and its accompanying mortgage and HELOC which the Court found was for Husband's benefit. Husband has the debts he incurred in purchasing the truck, boat and camper.

- (9) The standard of living the parties established during the marriage;

The Parties incurred a lot of debt during their marriage. The Wife lived within their means. The Husband spent beyond their means.

- (10) The extent to which each party has made such tangible and intangible contributions to the marriage as monetary and homemaker contributions, and tangible and intangible contributions by a party to the education, training or increased earning power of the other party;

Both Husband and Wife made tangible economic contributions to the marriage through their incomes. Wife also made tangible contributions as homemaker and paid the bills.

The Court finds both Parties made contributions to the marriage.

- (11) The relative fault of the parties, in cases where the court, in its discretion, deems it appropriate to do so; and Husband has been abusive to Wife. Husband engaged in and is still involved in an extra marital affair. The Court finds the Husband's infidelity caused the demise of the marriage.

The Court deems it appropriate to consider fault in awarding alimony.

- (12) Such other factors, including the tax consequences to each party, as are necessary to consider the equities between the parties.

The Court finds the Husband may incur a tax liability upon the liquidation of his retirement account. Both on the stand and in his private life Defendant exhibits an attitude that he is above the law. He violated the restraining order by coming to the marital residence more than once. When the police arrived he wanted to know who had called the police. The Court also finds that he also used his position at THP to have a fellow highway patrol officer follow his Wife.

It is the intent of the general assembly that a spouse who is economically disadvantaged to be rehabilitated. T. C. A. §36-5-121(d)(2). The Court finds that Wife is the disadvantaged spouse and needs alimony.

T.C.A. §36-5-121(d)(2) reflects a statutory preference favoring rehabilitative spousal support and transitional spousal support over long-term periodic spousal support. Gonsewski v. Gonsewski, 350 S.W.3d 99, 109 (Tenn. 2011). Transitional alimony is designed to aid a spouse who already possesses the capacity for self-sufficiency but needs financial assistance in adjusting to the economic consequences of establishing and maintaining a household without the benefit of the other spouse's income. Id.

The Court finds this is not a case of rehabilitative alimony as Wife already possesses self-sufficiency. However, the Court finds Wife needs temporary financial assistance to adjust to the economic consequences of the divorce. The Court finds the Wife needs an additional _____ a month in alimony (taking into account the child support to be paid). If the Husband had the ability to pay, the Court would award _____ a month in transitional alimony until the latter of _____ reaching 18 years of age or of his graduating from high school. However, the Court finds Husband has insufficient net monthly income to provide any meaningful amount of transitional alimony. The Court awards _____ a month as transitional alimony, as that is all the Husband can afford to pay. However, this does not provide the Wife with the support that she needs.

The difficulty with this case is the lack of resources to provide even "closing-in money" for Wife. Two persons living separately incur more expenses than two persons living together. Kinard v. Kinard, 986 S.W.2d 220, 234-35 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1998). As in Dempsey v. Dempsey, M1998-00972-COA-R30CV, 2000 WL 1006945 (July 21, 2000), these two people cannot live the same lifestyle separately as they did together. Husband will not be able to maintain the lifestyle he enjoyed before the divorce. Husband may have to sell one of his expensive toys such as the four-wheeler or boat (and lose the boat insurance), or trade-in for a more affordable truck, but the Court finds that he caused both the debt and the demise of the marriage.

Thus to provide sufficient alimony to Wife, the Court also awards Wife alimony in solido.

Alimony in solido can be in the form of a lump sum payment of cash or property: Gonsewski v. Gonsewski, 350 S.W.3d 99, 108 (Tenn. 2011). Alimony in solido may be awarded based upon the demonstrated need of the wife. Clayton v. Clayton, No. E2000-014130-COA-R3-CV, 2001 WL 579048 (2001). Alimony in solido can also be used to adjust the distribution of the parties marital property. Gonsewski. Thus the Court awards Wife alimony in solido in the form of the Husband's _____ in the amount of _____. This is close to the _____ amount of the HELOC that the Court found attributable to Husband. A court may award alimony in solido by allocating debt in an equitable manner. Yattoni-Prestwood v. Prestwood, 397 S.W.3d 583, 592 (Tenn. App. 2012). Thus the Court could allocate the HELOC to Husband. However, the Court is concerned that Husband has shown vindictive tendencies and may not pay the monthly HELOC payment. Thus rather than put the marital residence in jeopardy, the Court will award to Wife the Husband's _____ Wife can pay on the HELOC and 2) Wife receives closing in money.

VI. ATTORNEY'S FEES

"It is well-settled that an award of attorney's fees in a divorce case constitutes alimony in solido." Gonsewski v. Gonsewski, 350 S.W.3d 99, 113 (Tenn. 2011). An award of attorney's fees is appropriate when the disadvantaged spouse's income is not sufficient to pay the spouse's attorney's fees and the divorce fails to provide the spouse with a revenue source, such as from the property division or assets from which to pay the spouse's attorney's fees. Yount v. Yount, 91 S.W.3d 777, 783 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2002). When determining whether to award attorney's fees, the trial court must consider the relevant factors regarding alimony set forth in Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-5-121(i).

The Court has considered the factors set forth in Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-5-121(i), supra and incorporates same findings herein. The Court finds Wife's income is not sufficient to pay her attorney's fees.

The Court concludes Husband should pay Wife's reasonable attorney's fees. Wife's counsel shall file an affidavit for fees to which Husband may respond.

COSTS

Court costs to be paid by Husband.

Based upon the forgoing, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED

1. That the Court grants Wife a divorce on grounds of inappropriate marital conduct and the Parties are restored to the rights and privileges of single persons.
2. All rights to the Residence at _____ are divested out of Husband and vested in Wife. Husband shall quitclaim his interest in the Marital Residence located at _____ Should Husband fail to execute said quitclaim deed then, upon request and an affidavit of non-compliance, the Deputy Clerk shall execute said quitclaim deed on behalf of Husband.
3. All Husband's rights to his _____ are divested out of him and Husband shall execute a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) or such other document as necessary to effectuate the transfer. Should Husband refuse to execute the QDRO or other transfer document, then upon request and an affidavit of non-compliance, the Deputy Clerk shall execute the order on Husband's behalf.

4. All rights to the GMC Sierra Truck and the Honda Rancher 350 and the Polaris 90 are divested out of Husband and vested in Wife for Children. Husband shall execute whatever documents are necessary to transfer title to the vehicles in Wife's name. If Husband fails to execute any document transferring title, as set forth in an affidavit by Wife, then the Deputy Clerk shall execute such document on behalf of Husband.
5. That the Parties' assets and liabilities shall be allocated as set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
6. That Wife is awarded alimony in solido in the form of _____ in the amount _____
7. That Wife is awarded transitional alimony in the form of _____ month until the latter of _____ reaching 18 or graduating from high school.
8. That Husband shall pay Wife's reasonable attorney's fees.
9. Costs taxed to Husband.

Subject: Statement-CIVIL ISSUE with ex-wife

On Sunday 1/21/2018, I went to my previous home to collect my remaining belongings after I got off work. This was worked out and agreed between me and my ex via text previously. I had a friend/business owner and reserve police officer, Mike Hayes, to accompany me to be a witness if needed. His number is [REDACTED] Also to deter my ex from acting out, or being erratic, and lying about anything like she has and does all the time.

Me and Mike met at a convenience store and drove there in separate vehicles. My oldest son [REDACTED] was there to also help me. My ex wasn't there when we arrived, just my son. We hooked up my trailer to my truck in the backyard and began getting my belongings ready to be loaded. We loaded my 4 wheeler and multiple tools in my truck and my trailer.

All of a sudden we hear screaming and yelling coming from the road. My ex showed up with my [REDACTED] in a truck out in the road. My ex comes from the road yelling and going on about me taking my tools that I was awarded by agreement in our divorce decree. She grabbed an old cooler I had for over ten years that I had found on the side of the road along with my wet and dry vacuum that was a tool. It was also a personal belonging that was given to me as a gift from my parents many years ago. She went towards the road with the items and I hollered at her that those were mine and to return them.

I did not try to retrieve them back from her so there wouldn't be any way she could lie and fabricate some type of assault or other allegations like she has in the past. She went and put those items in the back of the truck she was riding in. I looked around for Mike and hollered for him, but couldn't find him.

My ex came back to where I was standing on my trailer. She tried to yank my air compressor of the trailer, but wasn't able to. I grabbed a hold of it and stood it up. She kept yelling that those aren't tools in which I said they are and were my tools. She came around and got up on my trailer where I was standing alone. I told my son to record his mother and the way she was acting. He looked as if he didn't know what to do. I don't know if he even had his phone to record the situation or not, but he didn't record anything. She came at me as I stood in front of my air compressor and told me I wasn't taking it. I put my hands behind my back as she began bumping into my chest so she couldn't say I assaulted her or struck her in any way. She reached around me a few times to try and grab my air compressor, but was unsuccessful as I stayed in front of it.

I turned my attention from her as she stopped to hopefully see if someone was recording her unnecessary actions. I noticed [REDACTED] hanging out of the window of the truck with a phone in the air appearing to be recording the situation. I waived at her a few times and she waived back. My ex got off the trailer and began walking back towards the street. I went and got my phone and called McMinn Dispatch for the Englewood Police to come. I hollered for Mike but couldn't find him. yelled and said he had left. I contacted him by phone. He had left and went back to the convenience store where we met originally due to my ex's erratic behavior. He returned back to the residence.

The Englewood P.D. showed up. I stayed in the back with my truck and trailer. A few minutes later, they came back to where I was with my ex following. I advised them to get her out of there multiple times so I could speak with them without her present. She eventually left and went back to the street.

I spoke with the supervisor from EPD and explained the situation and went over the civil court documentation. He called his Chief, Jason Pickel, and explained the situation to him. Afterwards he asked what else I needed to get and I told him. We all agreed it was a civil issue and I asked them to stay so my ex wouldn't cause any more problems. I moved my truck to the side of the house so I could gather the rest of my belongings. The supervisor explained the situation to her in the street in which she obviously didn't like and pleaded with him not to let me take my tools. She and left the area and we gathered and loaded the rest of my things. I then left a little while later. End of statement.

Giglio Awareness Statement: Advisement of Potential Impeachment Information

NAME: Curtis Gregory Walker

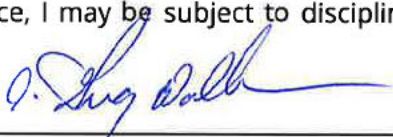

As an employee of the Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security, you are held to a high standard of honesty and credibility because of the need for public trust and confidence in your job responsibilities. These responsibilities may include, but are not limited to, being truthful in all written/oral communications and testifying in criminal and civil trials. You must be especially careful not to engage in any conduct, on or off-duty, that would damage your credibility. If your credibility is compromised, your ability to testify at trial is impaired. As testifying in criminal hearings is one of the essential functions of a Commissioned Member's job, any impairment to your credibility may put your job at risk.

Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 92 S. Ct. 763 (1972), when you testify in a criminal trial, the Department is required to turn over to the prosecution any information that reflects on your credibility. Investigative agencies, like the Department, must turn over to prosecutors, as early as possible in a case, potential impeachment evidence with respect to employees who are involved in the case. A "Giglio-impaired" employee is one against whom there is potential impeachment evidence that would render the employee's testimony of marginal value in a case. Examples of impeachment evidence include, but are not limited to the following: conduct relating to an employee's reliability, veracity, trustworthiness, and morals. This means, that a case, civil, e.g. forfeiture cases, or criminal, that depends primarily on the testimony of a Giglio-impaired employee is at risk.

Any employee found to have Giglio issues based on any conduct, on or off duty, shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

All employees shall be required to be truthful with supervisors and/or investigators during internal investigations and no employee shall knowingly report any inaccurate, false, improper, or misleading information.

I have read this statement and understand that if I am not truthful or engage in conduct that would be considered impeachment evidence, I may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

To: AD2018-0035
From: Sergeant Justin Roll
Date: March 22, 2018
Subject: Case Summation: Trooper Curtis Walker AD2018-0035

Initiation of investigation:

On February 9, 2018, the members of THP Command Staff requested the Inspectional Services Bureau (ISB) to conduct an administrative investigation into allegations of Trooper Curtis Walker failing to notify his chain of command of an incident involving him with the Englewood Police Department. ISB Lieutenant Jacob Stielow assigned the case to Sergeant Justin Roll who issued case number AD2018-0035.

Description of complaint:

On January 21, 2018, Trooper Walker went to Ms. Walker's, his ex-wife, residence to get his belongings that are listed in their final divorce decree. While Trooper Walker was at the residence, he and his ex-wife began to have a dispute about who was awarded possession of items listed in the final decree. During the dispute, Englewood Police Department responded to the residence to assist in managing the incident. After the dispute, Trooper Walker allegedly did not notify his chain of command of the police department responding to the house.

Findings/ Statements and evidence gathered in the investigation:

On January 9, 2017, Ms. Walker filed for divorce, and on January 12, 2017, a Temporary Restraining Order was filed by Ms. Walker in McMinn County Circuit Court and set for hearing on January 17, 2017. The Court heard the case on January 17, 2017, and the order states: "The parties are mutually restrained from having any contact with each other, except for social contact at extracurricular activities or school events, and as necessary to communicate about the best interest or emergency situations that relate to the children."

On February 27, 2018, Sergeants Justin Roll and Kasey Fitts conducted a phone interview with Mr. Mike Hayes. Mr. Hayes stated Trooper Walker called him on January 19, 2018, to inquire if he would assist him getting his items from Ms. Walker's residence. Trooper Walker needed assistance getting his tools and a four-wheeler loaded on his trailer. After Mr. Hayes spoke with Trooper Walker, he contacted Ms. Walker to ask if she had a problem with him helping Trooper Walker retrieve his items from the residence. Ms. Walker told Mr. Hayes she would rather him come to the residence so Trooper Walker would not make a scene.

On January 21, 2018, Mr. Hayes assisted Trooper Walker in gathering his items from the residence.

Trooper Walker was at the residence for approximately an hour before Ms. Walker arrived at the residence and began yelling about items she believed Trooper Walker was not privileged to have pursuant to the court order. Mr. Hayes told Ms. Walker he did not want to get involved in the argument between them. Ms. Walker advised him that law enforcement was en route. The argument was regarding the allocation of specific items listed in the final divorce decree. At this point, Mr. Hayes got into his vehicle and left the residence. Once Englewood Police Department arrived on the scene, Trooper Walker called Mr. Hayes to come back the residence so he could be a witness to the events taking place. When Mr. Hayes arrived back to the residence, the officers were reviewing the divorce decree to determine what defined a "hand tool."

Upon his return, Ms. Walker informed Mr. Hayes of Trooper Walker pushing or shoving her during their argument. Additionally, Ms. Walker told Mr. Hayes that her daughter videoed the incident. Mr. Hayes advised her to show the video to the officers on the scene. Mr. Hayes did not witness Trooper Walker become physical with or shove Ms. Walker.

ISB obtained the body camera footage from Englewood Police Officer Zack Ellis who responded to the incident. In the video, Ms. Walker informs Officer Ellis that Trooper Walker became physical with her and began to shove her. Additionally, Ms. Walker tells Officer Ellis that her daughter videoed this occurrence with her phone. Multiple attempts to interview Ms. Walker were made; however, she was not willing to speak with ISB investigators. Sergeant Roll spoke briefly with Ms. Walker and she believed she no longer had the video of the incident involving Trooper Walker.

On March 7, 2018, Sergeants Justin Roll and Toby Carter interviewed Trooper Walker. Trooper Walker stated he reached out to his friend, Mr. Mike Hayes, to accompany him to retrieve his belongings from his ex-wife's residence. The reason he asked Mr. Hayes to go with him was to have a witness on his behalf in case his ex-wife made a scene. Once Trooper Walker arrived at the residence he began loading his trailer with a four-wheeler and tools. Then, Ms. Walker arrived at the residence and began yelling at Trooper Walker about him taking possession of tools that were not awarded to him in the final divorce decree. Ms. Walker took back possession of items Trooper Walker had previously placed on the trailer. Trooper Walker noticed Mr. Hayes had left the residence and was unable to locate him. Ms. Walker approached Trooper Walker while he was standing on the trailer in front of the air compressor facing her. He placed his hands behind his back so that no one could construe that he assaulted her. Ms. Walker reached around Trooper Walker to grab the air compressor, but was unable to obtain it. While this was going on, Trooper Walker observed his step-daughter recording the incident with her phone as she hung out the driver's side window of a truck. This was Trooper Walker's version of events and not a verified fact.

Trooper Walker called Englewood Police Department to assist in rectifying the situation. Trooper Walker called Mr. Hayes to locate his whereabouts and Mr. Hayes told him he would return to the residence. Officer Zack Ellis of the Englewood Police Department arrived at the residence and Trooper Walker explained to Officer Ellis his understanding of what tools he was awarded through the court documents. Ms. Walker and Trooper Walker each pled their understanding to the officer of what items belonged to whom. Officer Ellis told them he believed this was a civil matter and he would not be able to intervein about which awarded items belonged to whom. Trooper Walker gathered the remainder of his items and left the residence.

Trooper Walker admitted to not notifying a supervisor of the aforementioned incident until approximately a week later when Lieutenant David Roark questioned him about the incident. Additionally, Sergeants Mike Brown and Phillip Dunn wrote statements regarding Trooper Walker not notifying them of the events that took place on January 21, 2018.

Summary of Evidence:

- Mr. Hayes assisted Trooper Walker with retrieving items from Ms. Walker's residence.
- While at Ms. Walker's residence, Trooper Walker and Ms. Walker began to argue about which party was awarded possession of items pursuant to the divorce decree.
- After multiple attempts to speak with Ms. Walker, she was unwilling to speak with ISB investigators.
- Trooper Walker called the Englewood Police Department to assist with neutralizing the situation between him and Ms. Walker.
- Trooper Walker did admit to not notifying his chain of command of the incident on January 21, 2018.

On January 21, 2018, Trooper Curtis Walker went to his ex-wife's residence to retrieve belongings awarded to him in their final divorce decree. While Trooper Walker was at the residence, he and his ex-wife began to have a verbal dispute over some of the items listed in the divorce decree. During the dispute, Englewood Police Department responded to the residence to assist in managing the incident.

After the dispute was resolved, no charges were placed on either party. However Trooper Walker, admittedly, failed to notify his chain of command of the altercation and police response to the residence. After reviewing the facts and statements, I find that Trooper Walker violated the following General Order:

General Order 216-2

Section III. 1. CONFORMANCE TO LAWS:

A. (2) Each employee shall immediately report to the employee's supervisor, or if unavailable, the on-duty supervisor any time the employee is subject to an investigation by the THP or any other law enforcement agency for any acts that could constitute a felony or misdemeanor.

Based on the Disciplinary Matrix and Trooper Walker's disciplinary history, I recommend that he receive a written warning for this policy violation.

Trooper Walker,

I have reviewed the departmental investigation about a verbal domestic dispute you were involved in that occurred on January 21, 2018.

On January 21, 2018, you went to your ex-wife's residence to retrieve belongings awarded to you in your final divorce decree. While you were at your ex-wife's residence, you and your ex-wife began to have a verbal dispute over some of the items listed in the divorce decree. During the dispute, the Englewood Police Department responded to the residence to assist in managing the incident.

After the dispute was resolved, no charges were placed on either party. However, you failed to notify your chain of command of the altercation and police response to the residence.

Upon reviewing this case, I am in agreement with Captain Mosley that you were in violation of General Order 216-2. General Order 216-2 section III, subsection 1, A. (2) titled "Conformance to Laws" states:

- A. (2) Each employee shall immediately report to the employee's supervisor, or if unavailable, the on-duty supervisor any time the employee is subject to an investigation by the THP or any other law enforcement agency for any facts that could constitute a felony or misdemeanor.

As result of these findings, I am issuing you a written warning for these violations.

This written warning will be placed in your official personnel file. If there are no further disciplinary actions regarding this area of performance, conduct or discipline, within the next two years, you may submit a written request for this warning to be expunged from your personnel file. You may find additional information regarding the review of written warnings at the Rules of Department of Human Resources, Rule 112-10-.04 (2) or D.O.S.H.S. General Order 216-3 Discipline and Disciplinary Matrix.

You may submit a request for review of this written warning to Commissioner David Purkey no later than fourteen (14) calendar days from receipt of this warning. Your request must be in writing and contain documentation of any mitigating circumstances that cause you to believe that this warning is undeserved. The request for review and the associated documentation shall be sent by e-mail to dosh.appeal@tn.gov or by fax to (615) 532-9310. The Commissioner shall submit a written response to the employee within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the request for review. The written decision of the Commissioner is final.

I acknowledge receipt of this written warning:

Subject: District Level Investigation – Trooper Curtis Walker (AD201-0049)

On March 1, 2018, I received a District Field Investigation packet on Trooper Curtis Walker. The file included a complaint statement from Ronald Million. Million had been stopped and cited by Trooper Walker and alleged that Trooper's Walker's conduct during the interaction was unacceptable.

Lieutenant David Roark was assigned the investigation. His investigation revealed that Trooper Walker's statements and behavior toward Million were uncalled for and unprofessional. Walker was upset that Million did not immediately stop when Walker got behind him. Although there were multiple driveways where Million could've stopped, the video indicates that Million is in no way trying to evade Trooper Walker. Million has his hand out the window motioning that he is going to pull onto a side street, rather than pull off the road with no shoulder at that point. Trooper Walker blocks entrance to the side street and uses profanity when ordering the driver to pull over. When Trooper Walker approaches the vehicle, it is obvious that he is clearly agitated. Trooper Walker introduces himself and asks for Million's license and registration. He then asks Million if something is funny, at this point Million begins to ask if this "is all over a seatbelt". Trooper Walker and Million begin to talk over one another and Trooper Walker orders Million out of the vehicle. Million refuses and Trooper Walker makes an attempt to grab Million's arm and asks him "do you want to go to jail?" Million continues to be non-compliant until a McMinn County Deputy arrived. Million then exits the vehicle and Trooper Walker grabs him by the arm and escorts him to front of his patrol unit. Trooper Walker pats Million down aggressively and continues to argue with him. In Trooper Walker's statement, he mentions blocking the entrance to the side street and patting Million down for officer safety concerns, however he aggressively approached Million's vehicle initially and did not maintain a safe threshold at the driver's window. Million tells Trooper Walker that he does not have his identification with him. Trooper Walker then goes back up to the car, opens the door, and looks around for a few seconds. Trooper Walker states that he was trying to verify the VIN. Trooper Walker issues Million four citations (Seatbelt Law, Registration Law, No DL on Person, and Failure to Yield to Emergency Equipment).

Even though Million was clearly being difficult, it is imperative that our personnel maintain their professionalism and composure when dealing with the public. Trooper Walker could have de-escalated the situation by not using profanity and not engaging in an argument with Million. After reviewing the facts and statements, I find the allegation to be sustained. Trooper Walker violated the following General Order:

General Order 501

Section V. CONDUCT TOWARD THE PUBLIC:

A. All employees, mindful of their responsibilities to the citizenry of the state, will deal with individuals in a manner that will project an atmosphere of respect and courtesy toward the general public. government. All business should be handled as quickly, professionally, and courteously as possible.

B. Employees will be courteous in their interactions with the public avoiding harsh, violent, threatening, profane, or insolent language or manner, and employees will maintain objective attitudes, regardless of provocation.

Trooper Walker received an oral warning for Courtesy in 2014. Based on Trooper Walker's history and the Disciplinary Matrix, I recommend that Trooper Ray receive a one day (1) suspension and attend Verbal Judo training for this policy violation.

During a random review of videos I noticed that one of Trooper Walker's stops displayed violations of Departmental Policies. He raised his voice at the driver through his window and again at the driver's door. He used profanity to the driver several times during the stop. He ordered the driver out of the vehicle and physically placed hands on the driver when he refused. Trooper Walker's attempt to remove the driver was unsuccessful which triggered him to stand and shout at the driver again.

Not until a Deputy Sheriff arrived on scene did the driver decide to comply. Once he exited the vehicle Trooper Walker seized his right arm and pulled him back to the patrol car. Trooper Walker then advised the driver to put his hands on the hood of his car as he searched the subject. He continued to argue with the driver advising him that he might find himself in the back seat of his car under arrest if he didn't hush.

Trooper Walker then gathered information due to a lack of credentials on the driver. Trooper Walker went back to the violators' vehicle while making the driver remain near his hood. Trooper Walker opened the driver door and looked around inside the vehicle and then shut the door. The driver was given several citations and then released.

On Thursday Feb. 22 A Mr. Ronald Million left a voice mail wanting to talk to me about a complaint on Trp. Walker. I talked to him by phone on Feb. 23rd and he explained to me his complaint and asked me to watch the video and get back with him. I made Lt. Roark aware of this. I had already seen the video due to the ongoing complaint with this traffic stop. When I called Mr. Million back he said he would come by the Athens Post on Monday morning and give a statement and talk to us about it. LT. Roark and I met him and he gave us a statement and requested to watch the video which we all three did together. He was very calm and respectful but not happy about the way he had been treated by Trp. Walker.

On 2/1/18 at approximately 1548 I was sitting at a red light on S. Jackson St. I observed a w/m turn onto S. Jackson going the opposite direction. He was leaning on the B pillar of his vehicle he was driving not wearing a seatbelt. He gave me a strange look as he passed. Once traffic started moving and I was able to move I turned and went back to locate the violator to issue a citation. I found him stopped in traffic at an intersection. As traffic started to move and he went through the stop sign, I had to initiate my lights and then siren so I wouldn't lose sight of the violator. As I cleared the intersection I made contact with the violator's vehicle while my lights and siren was still activated. I turned off my siren when I got in behind his vehicle. The violator continued on traveling without immediately stopping and pulling over. I hit my siren again just so there would be no doubt I was stopping him. He continued on and he then waived out of the driver's window. I started becoming concerned why this vehicle wouldn't pull over as most people do, especially over a seatbelt ticket. I was pointing for him to pullover to the right as required. I knew something was not right when he continued on. I turned on my siren and left it on. Afterwards he turned on his left blinker and pointed out of the window. Once clearing the hill and making sure there was no traffic coming in the opposite direction, I pulled up to the left rear of his vehicle. I didn't want him to pull in front of me and turn left and be able to have any tactical advantage if he had some intentions of trying to do harm to me or something else. As I came closer I could see the violator laughing in his left rear view mirror. I then moved up and was yelling and motioning for the driver to move to the right. Eventually he did and stopped. I immediately approached the vehicle due to the violator's actions. I told him who I was, my department, and what documents I wanted. I then asked him if something was funny, and he snickered and said yes. He then began to question me over the stop. I asked him if he knew what blue lights meant and he was being argumentative. He stuck an old registration type paper out of the window while still being argumentative. I was concerned for safety as to why this violator was acting the way he was. I didn't know if he had a weapon on him or he had one he had hid since he didn't want to stop. I wanted to remove him from the vehicle pat him down for my safety. I was unaware a deputy had drove up and then pulled over to assist. The violator was being verbally non-compliant. I opened the door and ordered him out multiple times. He told me no, and wouldn't comply. I reached to grab his arm and he then leaned across the front passenger seat. As the deputy comes up he finally comes out. I then hold his arm an escort him to the front of my vehicle and tell him to put his hands on my bumper. He continues try and be confrontational. I attempt t deescalate the situation by trying to pat him down and making sure he doesn't any weapons on him for mine and now the deputy's safety.

The violator continued to be verbally confrontational. A female had walked up through a yard to the fence beside where we were. She happened to be the owner of the vehicle and apparently his girlfriend. I gathered his name and DOB. I then looked through the windows to see if anything illegal was in plain view. I then opened the door to try and verify the VIN. I spoke to the female briefly and then gathered the old registration that was expired for two years. I went back to my vehicle and spoke with dispatch since they were calling on the phone. I ran his license and checked for warrants. Dispatch advised he had a very lengthy speeding and seatbelt history. I could hear the violator complaining to the deputy about law enforcement and traffic tickets. It sounded as if he were very anti law enforcement or government. I spoke with dispatch again by phone. Sgt. Brown showed up to the stop and I gave him a quick explanation of what happened. We then went back up and I issued and explained the citations to the violator. He again was trying to be confrontational and acting like he didn't understand the date court was set. He drove off still without putting on his seatbelt and then turned to the first road to the right where the female I believe came from. As we were leaving, Sgt. Brown said the violator drove through a yard on the other side of the fence where the female was standing and began to do donuts in the grass. End of statement.

ON Feb. 1st 2018 I WAS coming THRU downtown Athens on my way home. There was AN accident at the intersection there by First Baptist Church. So. I had to turn and go around the court house and eventually made a right turn onto south Jackson St.

This is where I noticed a T.H.P. SUV about 2-3 cars back waiting at the red light heading north into downtown. A The officer and I made eye contact. I WAS AWARE I didnt have my seat belt on. I continued on thinking nothing of it.

I crossed Hwy 39 and continued on home. About Estanillo Garage Door and Coleman glass. I heard sirens in the distance, I assumed it was going to be related to the accident in town.

AS I continued on past ERWIN St. the sirens became much louder. PASSING the PARK and approaching CANAL St. I noticed AN OFFICER coming up fast. I thought to myself 'He is going somewhere in a hurry'. B I did pull to the side thinking he was surely going on around. Then he didn't so maybe he is going up canal St. AND I'm in the way. NOPE. Now I AM sure he is pulling me over. I thought to myself this must be OVER the SEAT belt.

At this point all that was on my mind was to go to the top of the hill at Athenian where I thought it would be much SAFER for me the OFFICER and any PASSERS by, considering ROAD conditions. CURVES, NO SHOULDER, HILL, DRIVEWAYS. AND the time of day; people coming home; school buses etc.

So I did continue on slowly 15-20 mph at most. I thought that would show my intent to pull over. At that speed it did TAKE A little time to cover that distance. I believed by the OFFICER'S aggressive driving he became agitated. I just figured when I got to Athenian st. I would explain why I didn't stop on that stretch of Road. And All would be fine.

I did make a gesture for him to back off my vehicle. In the mirror it looked dangerously close to me. At this point no matter how much I feel I should go ahead and stop I feel committed to make it to the top of the hill for SARTY'S SAKE.

Shortly AFTER this thought process which all this seems like an eternity. I attempt to make a left turn onto Athenian st only to be cut off by this OFFICER, OR is he threatening to RAM me? We roll our windows down when I heard him yelling and using the F-C - word C and others for me to pull in the ditch... so I did. He got out and approached me yelling. I said I was trying to get off the main road. He informed me it was up to him where I pull over not me.

He instructed I get out of the car - I asked what he pulled me over for - He demands I get out of the car - I repeat my question. He opens my door reaches in grabs my hands and attempts to drag me out of my vehicle unsuccessfully. He again demands I get out of the car. I said I'm not getting out. The reason for me saying that was at that moment I didn't feel it was safe or wise for me to get out and then it be interpreted as aggression. He then started to reach for me again to remove me from the vehicle and stopped himself before making contact with me.

I interpreted this as him realizing the scope of his anger and that the situation was escalating. Even tho tho the tone didn't change I witnessed no further aggressive behavior.

I exited the vehicle because I no longer felt threatened and to just get this ordeal over with.

He threatens to take me to

Subject: District Level Investigation - Trooper Curtis Walker (AD201-0049)

On March 1, 2018, I received a District Field Investigation packet on Trooper Curtis Walker. The file included a complaint statement from Ronald Million. Million had been stopped and cited by Trooper Walker and alleged that Trooper's Walker's conduct during the interaction was unacceptable.

Lieutenant David Roark was assigned the investigation. His investigation revealed that Trooper Walker's statements and behavior toward Million were uncalled for and unprofessional. Walker was upset that Million did not immediately stop when Walker got behind him. Although there were multiple driveways where Million could've stopped, the video indicates that Million is in no way trying to evade Trooper Walker. Million has his hand out the window motioning that he is going to pull onto a side street, rather than pull off the road with no shoulder at that point. Trooper Walker blocks entrance to the side street and uses profanity when ordering the driver to pull over. When Trooper Walker approaches the vehicle, it is obvious that he is clearly agitated. Trooper Walker introduces himself and asks for Million's license and registration. He then asks Million if something is funny, at this point Million begins to ask if this "is all over a seatbelt". Trooper Walker and Million begin to talk over one another and Trooper Walker orders Million out of the vehicle. Million refuses and Trooper Walker makes an attempt to grab Million's arm and asks him "do you want to go to jail?" Million continues to be non-compliant until a McMinn County Deputy arrived. Million then exits the vehicle and Trooper Walker grabs him by the arm and escorts him to front of his patrol unit. Trooper Walker pats Million down aggressively and continues to argue with him. In Trooper Walker's statement, he mentions blocking the entrance to the side street and patting Million down for officer safety concerns, however he aggressively approached Million's vehicle initially and did not maintain a safe threshold at the driver's window. Million tells Trooper Walker that he does not have his identification with him. Trooper Walker then goes back up to the car, opens the door, and looks around for a few seconds. Trooper Walker states that he was trying to verify the VIN. Trooper Walker issues Million four citations (Seatbelt Law, Registration Law, No DL on Person, and Failure to Yield to Emergency Equipment).

Even though Million was clearly being difficult, it is imperative that our personnel maintain their professionalism and composure when dealing with the public. Trooper Walker could have de-escalated the situation by not using profanity and not engaging in an argument with Million. After reviewing the facts and statements, I find the allegation to be sustained. Trooper Walker violated the following General Order:

General Order 501

Section V. CONDUCT TOWARD THE PUBLIC:

A. All employees, mindful of their responsibilities to the citizenry of the state, will deal with individuals in a manner that will project an atmosphere of respect and courtesy toward the general public. A citizen's business dealings with the Department to obtain driver license, traffic crash reports, general information, etc., may be the only contact the individual has with the state government. All business should be handled as quickly, professionally, and courteously as possible.

B. Employees will be courteous in their interactions with the public avoiding harsh, violent, threatening, profane, or insolent language or manner, and employees will maintain objective attitudes, regardless of provocation.

Trooper Walker received an oral warning for Courtesy in 2014. Based on Trooper Walker's history and the Disciplinary Matrix, I recommend that Trooper Ray receive a one day (1) suspension and attend Verbal Judo training for this policy violation.

To: Trooper Curtis Walker
From: Commissioner David W. Purkey David W. Purkey ^{TW} 4-13-18
Date: April 13, 2018
Subject: Notice of Disciplinary Action - Suspension-AD2018-0049

This memorandum serves as notice of your suspension without pay for one (1) workday. Your suspension will start on April 16, 2018, and continue through the close of business on April 16, 2018.

Based on the recommendation from Captain Jeff Mosley and approved by the Chain of Command, I am suspending you for one (1) workday without pay. This disciplinary action is based on the following facts and violations of the referenced rules and General Orders:

Trooper Walker, on February 1, 2018, you conducted a traffic stop on Mr. Ronald Million on S. Jackson Street in McMinn County. You became upset when Mr. Million did not immediately stop as he motioned that he was going to pull over on a side street since there was no shoulder on the roadway. You blocked a side street as you drove up to the left side of Mr. Million's vehicle and began to use profanity while ordering him to pull over. Once you introduced yourself to Mr. Million, both of you began to talk over each other, and you ordered Mr. Million out of the vehicle. Mr. Million refused the order and you attempted to grab his arm. You, then, asked him, "Do you want to go to jail?". Mr. Million exited the vehicle and you grabbed his arm while escorting him toward the front of your patrol vehicle. You patted him down aggressively as the argument continued. It is imperative for you to have professional interactions and to keep your composure with citizens.

Trooper Walker, this incident demonstrates that you have a complete disregard for the policies and procedures of the Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security (TDOSHS). Furthermore, your conduct was not in keeping with the standards required of members of the TDOSHS. You received an oral warning for Courtesy as disciplinary action in 2014.

Trooper Walker, the act set out herein is a clear violation of Department of Human Resources rules – 1120-10-.03(11), General Orders 216-2, III: A-1,2, & B-(2,d,1), 5(a,b), and General Order 501, V: (A,B) and all of which are attached hereto and made a part hereof.

APPEAL

As a preferred employee, you may appeal this decision by filing a Step I appeal form to the Department of Safety and Homeland Security Commissioner within fourteen (14) calendar days from receipt of this memorandum. The Step I appeal form is attached to DOSHS General Order 216-4 and it is also on "H" Drive. Your appeal must be received by Captain Michael Hamilton by the close of business of the fourteenth day by sending the appeal by e-mail at Dosh appeal@tn.gov, by fax to (615)-532-9310, or by mail to:

Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security
Captain Chris Ray, Inspectional Services Bureau
312 Rosa L. Parks Avenue 25th Floor
Nashville, TN 37243

The written appeal must identify the specific law, rule, or policy that was allegedly violated by the department, along with any relevant documentation. You may direct questions regarding the appellate process to the Internal Investigations Unit at (615) 251-5228 or to the Employee Relations Division of the Department of Human Resources at (615) 741-1646. SUMMARY OF INCIDENT

On Wednesday February 26, 2014 Mr. Goins was stopped by Trooper Greg Walker on Hwy 11 approximately two or three miles south of Athens, TN. The complainant alleges that he was falsely accused of being on his phone while driving a Commercial Motor Vehicle. Additionally, Mr. Goins felt like he was being harassed and threatened by Trooper Walker during the traffic stop. Captain Brooks recommended an Oral Warning and that Trp. Walker be required to attend a Verbal Judo class. The Verbal Judo class was completed on May 6, 2014.

Dear Major Sanders:

On February 26, 2014 Trooper Curtin Walker was patrolling Highway 11 near Riceville, Tennessee. Trooper Walker observed a commercial vehicle going in the other direction that Walker suspected that the driver was talking on a cell phone.

Trooper Walker made the traffic stop and questioned the driver about talking on the phone. The driver Dewayne Goins denied that he had been on the phone and offered proof by displaying his phone to Trooper Walker. All the time Mr. Goins spoke in a loud voice to Trooper Walker giving Walker the impression Goins was angry.

Trooper Walker did not issue a citation to Mr. Goins but by his verbiage gave Mr. Goins the impression that he would be watching for him.

After reviewing the traffic stop video and reviewing Sergeant Phillips Dunn investigation I agree that Trooper Walker did not handle the stop professionally. I find that the complaint is sustained and Mr. Goins has a valid complaint.

Trooper Walker had been off on light duty for eight months and this event occurred within the first two weeks of him returning to duty. I recommend that Trooper Walker be enrolled in Verbal Judo and receive a verbal warning for this complaint.

Sincerely

MEMORANDUM:

TO: Trooper Greg Curtis Walker

FROM: Captain Jessie Brooks

DATE: April 11, 2014

SUBJECT: Verbal Warning

As subscribed by General Order 216-2 Disciplinary Regulations, Section III subsection 5 a. Employees shall be as courteous, diplomatic, professional and or patient with the public, whenever possible.

This is to serve as a notice and acknowledgement of a Verbal Warning to Trooper Greg Walker that a complaint was filed by Mr. Dewayne Goins regarding a traffic stop made by Trooper Walker. Mr. Goins alleges that Trooper Walker was rude and unprofessional.

Upon investigation by Sergeant Phillip Dunn and review of the video of the traffic stop by Captain Brooks, Lt. Burnette, and Sergeant Dunn we observed that Trooper Walker was not as professional as the Department of Safety demands.

The recommendation of Captain Brooks is that Trooper Walker receives a Verbal Warning and required to attend Verbal Judo class when available. Trooper Walker must provide a certification of completion to Captain Brooks when the Verbal Judo class has been completed.

An appeal of this finding shall be submitted to Captain Jessie Brooks within 10 days of receipt of this letter if you are not in agreement of this finding.

On 2/26/14 at approximately 0835, I was southbound on Hwy. 11 near Riceville, Tn. I observed a Co-op tractor trailer northbound on Hwy. 11. The white male driver of the truck had his right hand up beside his head on the right side as if he were talking or using a cellphone while operating a CMV. I did not observe any headset on the driver as I passed him. I went down to the next median crossover and turned to go back and conduct a traffic stop. I made contact with the truck just north of CR 114 on Hwy.11. Upon initiation of blue lights and straddling the white dotted lines of roadway, the vehicle did not respond. I gave audible signal briefly with no response. I then gave continuous audible signal with wig-wags with no immediate response. The vehicle very slowly responded and began to yield. It took truck approximately one minute to respond and yield. I could not go make immediate contact with driver to make sure he wasn't deleting calls or doing something else improper or illegal due to radio traffic and a directive/G.O. of calling in traffic stop prior to making contact. While walking up to cab of truck and looking into the cab, I observed the driver fumbling with a headset on his head as if he were putting it on. I knocked on door opened it and told him to bring his paperwork and other documentation. Upon questioning him about being on his phone, he did not immediately respond. He paused with a blank stare for a few seconds as if he were thinking what to say. he denied incident in a very loud response. I told him to lower his voice. He continued on loudly without lowering his voice. I again told him to lower his voice. After him continuing on for the third time, I finally raised my voice and told him to lower his voice and to stop talking to me the way he was, that I wasn't talking to him that way and again lower his voice. He apologized for his actions. He opened up his phone and we began going through it. I could not clearly see all outgoing and incoming calls. The last entry left on a general screen about recent calls was at 0842 that date. He continued denying the incident and I told him thats why I was going through it to give him the benefit of the doubt. I asked him again about why his hand was up by his head and he said he may have been scratching his head. I did not observe his arm in motion as if he were scratching his head. He had made comments about being able to deleting calls and also him not going to pay a $2500. fine. I told him multiple times that I was going to give him the benefit of doubt. Again his phone started ringing. It was very coincidental that he had two phone calls in the short time while I had contact with him roadside, but he hadn't used the phone since he delivered at the farm he was coming from according to him. I told him multiple times we were done and ready to go, but the kept going on. He finally stopped and got in his truck and left. End of statement.

IIU Case # CC2014-0014
Employee Name Curtis Greg Walker

I was notified by Lt. Burnette on 2/27/14 that a Mr. Dewayne Goins who had been stopped by Trp. Greg Walker, wanted to file a complaint and I needed to call him. Upon making contact with Mr. Goins he stated that he was upset about being pulled over and being accused of being on his cell phone while driving a CMV. something the Trooper was not sure of and he also said he felt that Trp. Walker was disrespectful to him and that he wanted to file a complaint. I dropped the complaint form at his place of employment Co-op in Athens less than one mile from the Athens post. On 2/28/14 Mr. Goins met me at the Post and turned in the complaint form and verbally told me his side of the story. I talked to Trp. Walker and viewed the video. It showed that on 2/26/14 at approx. 8:35 a.m. Trp. Greg Walker pulled over a tractor and trailer from the co-op driven by Mr. Dewayne Goins on Hwy 11 in McMinn Co. Trp. Walker stated he stopped a Co-op tractor and trailer due to the driver talking on the phone. He stated the driver was slow to respond to his blue lights. Upon making contact with the driver a Mr. Dewayne Goins, he denied being on the phone to Trp. Walker. The video shows him talking very loud and insisting he wasn't on the phone, he did show the phone to Trp. Walker and he was not issued a citation. The stop was lengthy and both Trp. Walker and Mr. Goins appeared to be argumentative. The video shows that Trp. Walker was disrespectful to Mr. Goins. In his statement Trp. Walker said the driver was on the phone but gave him the benefit of the doubt. He also stated the driver raised his voice at him several times. Trp. Walker also had to tell the complainant more than once they were done. Both Trp. Walker and Mr. Goins left the traffic stop scene without incident. Mr. Goins called in shortly after the stop.

Subject: District Level Investigation - Trooper Greg Walker (CC2018-0002)

On February 2, 2018, I received an Information Only packet on Trooper Curtis Walker. The file included a complaint statement from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was involved in a crash that Trooper Walker investigated. [REDACTED] disputed the crash investigation and alleged that Trooper's Ray conduct during the interaction was unacceptable.

Lieutenant David Roark was assigned the investigation. His investigation revealed that Trooper Walker's audio was inoperative during the crash investigation. According to Lieutenant Roark, the audio did not work that day after 0906. Trooper Walker stated that he was polite and courteous the entire time. Therefore, the allegations of rudeness are inconclusive.

While reviewing the crash report involving [REDACTED] I did find some inaccuracies. Trooper Walker listed "cellular phone present in the vehicle" as a distraction for [REDACTED] even though he never discussed this with [REDACTED] or made reference to the distraction. Trooper Walker also listed Driver 2 with no contributing factors, even though the driver turned left into the travel path of Vehicle 1. Trooper Walker did cite Driver 1 with Failure to Use Headlights in Inclement Weather, but Driver 2 does have some comparative fault in this crash for failing to yield right of way. It appears from the initial report that Trooper Walker did not thoroughly investigate and report this traffic crash, causing significant ramifications for [REDACTED]. After reviewing the complaint and crash report, I find this allegation to be sustained. Trooper Walker violated the following General Order:

General Order 216-2

Section B (4) UNSATISFACTORY JOB PERFORMANCE:

(A) Employees shall maintain sufficient competency to properly perform their duties and to assume the responsibilities of their positions.

Trooper Walker has already amended the crash report and I recommend that he receive an oral warning for this policy violation.

To: Capt. Jeff Mosley
From: Lt. David Roark
Date: February 18th
Subject: Complaint number IO2018-0027

I received a complaint on January 31st filed by Mrs. [REDACTED] of an event that happened on 12/23/2018. The complaint advised that Trooper Walker was rude and showed disrespect toward women. She said that he humiliated her and scared her to the point she felt she couldn't answer him. She is requesting we remove him without pay.

After viewing the video I talked with Trooper Walker. Trooper Walker denies that any of the complaints are true. He advised that he cited her for a light law but was polite and courteous the entire time. He said he could not understand why she would complain.

The video of the stop has no audio from the body microphone. The audio did not work on any of Trooper Walker videos that day after 0906. Trooper Walker did a sound check on his system that date at 0655. He walked in front of his vehicle and gave name, date, and shift. Everything worked on his first stop of the day but had no audio the rest of the shift.

With no evidence from the video I have no way to determine if the complaint is true or not. Nothing indicated that Trooper Walker turned the audio off in any way or made in effort to cover up evidence. I have no additional evidence to review at this time.

MEMO

To: Lt. Roark
From: Trp. Walker
Date: 2/24/18
Subject: Statement-217053277

On 12/24/17, I was called to a 10-45 on Hwy. 30E in McMinn County. It had been raining heavy that day. Upon my arrival it was still raining. All parties were on the shoulder and in their vehicles. I got on my loud speaker and instructed the drivers to come on out and come back.

Upon walking up to the first vehicle I came to (Toyota), I believe I asked if she was ok and then advised her I needed her license, registration, and insurance. She then stated her driver's door wouldn't open. I believe I asked her if she wanted me to have the fire department to come and she advised no. I advised she would need to exit somehow.

As she was gathering her paperwork, the other driver and her father met me just in front of the Toyota, on the shoulder. I checked on them and told them what paperwork I needed. Upon speaking with them, the father advised he wasn't present during the crash and showed after he was contacted by his daughter. The driver of the Toyota couldn't provide any proof of insurance. I spoke with each party to get their version of what happened during and before the crash.

I noticed upon my arrival the Toyota didn't have any headlights on. The other driver advised the driver of the Toyota didn't have her headlights on prior to the crash and didn't she see the vehicle. I questioned the driver of the Toyota about her lights and noted that she didn't turn them on and thought her lights came on automatically. This occurred during daylight hours and wasn't dark enough for the headlight sensor to turn them on. I observed the light gold color of the Toyota car. I felt the no use of headlights during heavy rain (Inclement weather) of the driver of the Toyota along with light color gold mixing with the background color of roadside grass (yellowish) was a major factor contributing to this crash to why the other driver didn't see the Toyota.

The driver of the Toyota had a male friend come to the scene also. I was completely professional and unbiased to either party and wasn't rude to anyone. I completed my crash paperwork, issued two citations to the driver of the Toyota. They were for insurance and failure to use headlights during inclement weather. I observed when the Toyota vehicle left and went back in the opposite direction, the headlights were on. End of statement.

December 27, 2017 (Began the draft)

January 8, 2018

My name is [REDACTED]. The purpose for this letter is to file a complaint against Trooper Curtis Walker for his rude, disrespectful, and unprofessional attitude towards me on December 23, 2017. Incident # 217053277.

When Trooper Walker arrived at the scene of the accident, (around thirty (30) minutes later) he got on his bull horn and announced, "Alright drivers, get out so we can get this over with." I got the feeling we had interrupted his day in some way due to his tone of voice. He was not happy to be there.

At that time, when I tried to open my door, I realized that it was jammed and I couldn't open it. I rolled down my passenger side window and leaned over to tell him my door was jammed and I couldn't get out. He continued past my car, never broke pace and said, "You better be figuring out a way to get out of that car!" He proceeded to the other car involved in the crash while I was trying to climb to the passenger side to get out. By the time I got out and started walking toward the other car, I heard Trooper Walker, who was speaking to the father of the driver who hit me. (He was not in the car at the time of the wreck.) He very respectfully spoke to him, and had his daughter to get in the car to see if the tire could be turned.

He then started down toward my car. He never looked at me. It was as if I was nothing. He very gruffly said to me (still looking forward) "Tell me what happened." As I began to explain to him that I was in the far lane (He interrupted me and said "What far lane?"). I then told him I was in the left lane. I saw the car shoot from the side road, across both west bound lanes, and into the turn through. I told him that she never stopped rolling, and despite the fact that I was moving over and accelerating in order to avoid the collision, she still came on and hit my driver door. (The entire front end of my car was in front of her car when she hit me!!) I don't know if he asked to see her cell phone records or not, but I suspect she was not paying attention and did not look.

He, then, abruptly said, "I notice you don't have your headlights on." Did you have them on during the wreck?" I told him that I had an auto sensor, and before I could tell him that I thought they were on, he cut me off and in a very rude tone and said, "You can't rely on those auto sensors; you are personally responsible for making sure they are on. You just blended in with everything, and she couldn't see you. Look how light it is out here. They're not going to come on." By this time, I realized that I did know for sure that my lights were on. I felt as if he was dressing me down, and from that time on, I was afraid to speak up for myself because it was made clear to me in his tone and body language that he "was the only authority there, and he wasn't to be messed with".

* I need to interject here that my vehicle wasn't running and hadn't been running since I pulled off to the side of the road once she ran over my car. As soon as I turned off my car, the lights would have gone off because the sensor showing that the door was ajar was set off due to having both of my driver side doors crushed in by the impact from the other car. Also, there had been a time lapse of around 30 minutes since the accident occurred. At the time of the incident, the sky was dark with cloud cover combined with the hard rain.*

Following this conversation, he told me to have a seat in my car. He walked past my driver side, but took no time to look at the damage to my car; he was in too big of a hurry to get back in his vehicle. (It had begun to sprinkle again. He seemed to not want to get wet.)

After a few minutes, he got back on his loudspeaker and said, "All involved parties come back here and let's get this finished. The girl, her father and I were all standing in the window of the trooper's passenger side door. He first addressed the man. He respectfully said to him, "Sir, if you'll sign right here, you're free to go. She doesn't have proof of insurance, she's got her receipt, but no proof of insurance. So, just sign here, and you're all finished and ready to go. I have to write her some citations."

He signed the paper and walked off. At which point Trooper Walker changed his entire demeanor and was very gruff, rude and disrespectful, and harassing as he began to "scold" and "chastise" me as if I were a child who needed his guidance. I believe it was because I was a woman by myself. He seemed to feel very empowered as I stood there sobbing and completely falling apart. Somehow it seemed to make him feel good to see how his misuse of authority made me feel berated and belittled. Near the end of the chewing out, my brother arrived, and came to stand with me at the trooper's window. Only when my brother was there with me did the trooper's demeanor change. He politely spoke to me and told me it was just a minor crash, and everything would work out. I'm positive he wanted my brother to hear him speak in a decent tone to me.

Based upon the way he treated me, it is my belief that he spoke with the father of the girl in the wreck and was told she didn't see me. He never bothered to listen to me explain that at the time of impact, my whole front end was ahead of the other driver, and she still continued toward my car and hit my driver side doors. Based only on the word of the man, he decided I caused the wreck, and wrote the citation accordingly.

I teach school for a living and deal with the public all the time. I know how difficult some people can be. However, he started out being rude to me. It was as if The Incident disrupted his day, and he was in a hurry to get back to the rest of his day. I was squalling and completely broken by the time I signed the form. He made me feel as if I were useless and didn't deserve a fair shake by the time he got finished with me.

He may know state law, but he doesn't need to be working with the female public if he can't be respectful toward them. At a minimum, he needs to have some sensitivity training. However, he mostly needs to be on unpaid leave for a while and think about how he chooses to write citations. His write up states that I caused the wreck. This has, and is, affecting the way the insurance is treating my settlement. Therefore, my finances are being affected. Maybe his should be as well.

While this may only be a minor wreck to him, it has totally destroyed me financially. I was hit by another driver while I was trying my best to avoid it, and I am being punished due to his arrogant attitude toward me (being a woman). I don't have a car to drive. I can't buy another one. If I keep the car I have, it has been totaled and I will not be allowed to carry comprehensive or collision insurance coverage on it. I will only have liability coverage. By Trooper Walker's assigning the cause of the crash to me, it's not going to be a minor wreck, and it's not going to work out!!!

I have started to send this in several times, but each time I hesitated because of fear of retribution. I've decided it's too important not to go forward with this complaint.

Subject: District Level Investigation - Trooper Greg Walker (CC2018-0002)

On February 2, 2018, I received an Information Only packet on Trooper Curtis Walker. The file included a complaint statement from [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was involved in a crash that Trooper Walker investigated. [REDACTED] disputed the crash investigation and alleged that Trooper's Ray conduct during the interaction was unacceptable.

Lieutenant David Roark was assigned the investigation. His investigation revealed that Trooper Walker's audio was inoperative during the crash investigation. According to Lieutenant Roark, the audio did not work that day after 0906. Trooper Walker stated that he was polite and courteous the entire time. Therefore, the allegations of rudeness are inconclusive.

While reviewing the crash report involving [REDACTED], I did find some inaccuracies. Trooper Walker listed "cellular phone present in the vehicle" as a distraction for [REDACTED], even though he never discussed this with [REDACTED] or made reference to the distraction. Trooper Walker also listed Driver 2 with no contributing factors, even though the driver turned left into the travel path of Vehicle 1. Trooper Walker did cite Driver 1 with Failure to Use Headlights in Inclement Weather, but Driver 2 does have some comparative fault in this crash for failing to yield right of way. It appears from the initial report that Trooper Walker did not thoroughly investigate and report this traffic crash, causing significant ramifications for [REDACTED]. After reviewing the complaint and crash report, I find this allegation to be sustained. Trooper Walker violated the following General Order:

General Order 216-2

Section B (4) UNSATISFACTORY JOB PERFORMANCE:

(A) Employees shall maintain sufficient competency to properly perform their duties and to assume the responsibilities of their positions.

Trooper Walker has already amended the crash report and I recommend that he receive an oral warning for this policy violation.

You also listed Driver 2 with no contributing factors, even though the driver turned left into the travel path of Vehicle 1. You cited Driver 1 with Failure to Use Headlights in Inclement Weather, but Driver 2 still has some comparative fault in this crash for failing to yield right of way. It appears from the initial report that you did not thoroughly investigate and report this traffic crash, thus causing significant ramifications for [REDACTED].

I am confident that this issue will not happen again. However, note that if this issue arises further action may be taken, up to and including dismissal.

This is to acknowledge receipt of the disciplinary action - Oral Warning.

Captain Michael Melhorn

Dear Captain Melhorn,

On Wednesday, July 22nd at approximately 0211 hours, Trooper Randall Williams was patrolling West Emory Road and received a stolen vehicle alert from his LPR unit. Knoxville Dispatch confirmed, through NCIC, that the vehicle was stolen and reported by the Clinton Police Department, two days prior. A traffic stop was attempted for the stolen vehicle and various other traffic violations, on Interstate 640 east at the 4 mile-marker. The subject vehicle then accelerated at a high rate of speed, and Trooper Williams advised Knoxville Dispatch that he was in pursuit.

The pursuit continued on Interstate 640 east and then entered Interstate 40 west. The Knoxville Police Department followed the pursuit, at a distance, for a short period and then advised Knoxville Dispatch that they would not become involved. The pursuit continued Interstate 40 west and Trooper Curtis Walker joined the pursuit, becoming the back-up unit around the 376 mile-marker. The Knox County Sheriff's Department also joined the pursuit at this time. The subject vehicle then exited Interstate 40 west and onto State Route 162 north, toward Oak Ridge. As the pursuit entered Solway, the Knox County Sheriff's Department terminated. The pursuit then entered the Oak Ridge City limits and made a right turn onto State Route 95. Multiple agencies joined the pursuit and attempted to set up tire deflation devices, this was unsuccessful. The pursuit continued onto State Route 61, through the Clinton City limits and onto Interstate 75 north. While on Interstate 75 north multiple agencies again became involved and attempted deploying tire deflation devices, this was unsuccessful. As the pursuit continued Interstate 75 north, Lieutenant Russell Smith advised all THP units that they were to terminate at the Kentucky State line, and both units terminated the pursuit near the 161 mile-marker. The pursuit was then picked up by the Kentucky State Police and the suspect was taken into custody a short time after THP units terminated.

After reviewing the in-car video of the pursuit and the Pursuit Packet submitted by Sergeant Michael Turley, I have found that Troopers Williams and Walker acted within the scope and guidelines of the Department's General Orders and Policies.

Subject: Trp. Williams Pursuit CAD# 120031196

On Wednesday, July 22, 2020, Trooper Williams received an LPR hit on a stolen vehicle traveling on West Emory Rd. Dispatch confirmed that the vehicle was stolen through NCIC. Trooper Williams also observed other traffic violations. Lieutenant Rusty Smith was notified by phone from Knoxville dispatch. Trooper Williams activated his emergency equipment, and the suspect evaded. The suspect exited off I75 south to I640 east. The pursuit went along I640 to I40 west. Trooper Walker became support around the 376. K.C.S.O. became secondary around the same time. The pursuit continued to north on S.R. 162 Pellissippi Pkwy. When entering Solway K.C.S.O. terminated, and Trooper Walker became secondary as they entered Oak Ridge. As the pursuit turned onto S.R.95 multiple agencies joined and attempted spike strips that were unsuccessful. The pursuit continued onto S.R.61 through Clinton and then back onto I75 north. The pursuit entered Campbell County Lt. Smith advised both units to terminate at the Tennessee, Kentucky state line. Kentucky State Police took over the pursuit at or around the 160mm. Both units terminated at the 161mm. The defendant was arrested in Kentucky a short time after both units terminated.

After reviewing the video, it appears the roadway was clear and was not wet. Traffic was light the majority of the pursuit. Trooper Williams knew locations, and the highest speed reached during the 1-hour 1-minute pursuit was 116mph. Trooper Williams was within the realm of General Order 411. I did not observe any violations regarding Policy, Procedures, or General Orders.

OFFICER'S STATEMENT AS TO WHAT HAPPENED, IN DETAIL

I was notified by THP Dispatch via telephone at approximately 02:11 on July 22nd about an ongoing pursuit in Knox County. THP Dispatch stated Trp. Williams was in pursuit of a vehicle that was reported stolen, and Trp. Williams also observed various other traffic violations. THP Dispatch confirmed the vehicle was reported stolen and entered into NCIC by the Clinton Police Department two days prior. Trp. Williams pursued the vehicle westbound at various speeds ranging the mid 80's to the high 90's in light traffic conditions. The Knoxville Police Department followed Trp. Williams for a short distance but terminated shortly after speaking with THP Dispatch. Trp. Walker joined the pursuit near the 376 mile marker as the defendant continued traveling westbound and turned towards Oak Ridge. Multiple other agencies became involved in the pursuit briefly as the defendant drove on the outskirts of Oak Ridge City and through Clinton City. The defendant continued on I-75 north in a reckless manner and at a high rate of speed but traffic was still light during the pursuit. Various agencies engaged with THP units for short distances and also attempted to set up spike strips, but all were unsuccessful or were not authorized by their own department. The defendant continued driving north, and I stated THP units would not pursue into Kentucky. One Kentucky State Police unit was available near the state line but Trp. Williams and Trp. Walker were ordered to terminate after the suspect got off the interstate at the Jellico exit but got back on I-75 still continuing north. Both THP units terminated the pursuit near the 161 mile marker. The defendant was arrested a short time after THP units terminated by the Kentucky State Police.

OFFICER'S STATEMENT AS TO WHAT HAPPENED, IN DETAIL

On the listed date and time, I responded to the area of I-40 at Cedar Bluff. I was waiting to assist 1129, Trp. Williams who was in an active pursuit with a stolen vehicle westbound on I-40. Knox County S.O. had just joined him as they passed my location. At that point I fell in behind them as vehicle 3 and began calling the pursuit. The pursuit exited off I-40 onto Pellissippi Pkwy towards Oak Ridge. We continued on and Knox County eventually dropped out. I then moved to vehicle 2. We continued through multiple jurisdictions with multiple agencies actively participating. I dropped back to vehicle 3 or 4 for a few minutes as other agencies tried to push forward. One agency attempted to spike the suspect but was unsuccessful. We continued on and eventually got onto I-75 northbound. Other agencies ahead of us was notified and attempted to assist. I asked dispatch to notify KSP also. At one point we exited the interstate and then got right back on northbound. We were instructed to stop at the Kentucky state line at the 160, in which we did. Ksp picked up the pursuit at that point. A Jellico officer stopped with us in the median. As we were talking and monitoring the pursuit from his vehicle, the units in Kentucky advised they were able to put the driver and female passenger in custody. Trp. Williams placed a hold on the driver and took out warrants for him.

Describe the Justification for the Initiation, Continuation, Completion, and/or Termination of the Pursuit:
Justification- Failure to stop for blue lights
Continuation- Continued to flee
Termination-Subject fled the state.

Narrative:
On July 22, 2020 I was patrolling West Emory Rd. A light in color sedan passed me going east bound. My LPR showed the vehicle stolen. I checked the information and tag to see if it was correct, I turned around and began to follow the vehicle. I notified my dispatch of the vehicle and asked in there were any KCSO units in the area available. The vehicle continued to Central Ave and turned right onto Emory Rd failing to stop for a red light.. The vehicle then went on I75 south. I observed multiple traffic infractions but waited for additional units before I attempted a felony traffic stop. The vehicle took the I640 East exit and crossed the median line. I then initiated my emergency equipment. The vehicle failed to stop. The vehicle a 2000 Beige in color Toyota Camry was reported stolen by Clinton PD per my dispatch. The vehicle was pursued through Knox County, Anderson County, and Campbell County. During the pursuit the vehicle almost struck multiple vehicles and showed little regard for the motoring public. Speeds at times were excess of 100MPH. The vehicle speed through active construction zones in Knox County, while workers were present. The vehicle came close to striking another vehicle from the rear. I terminated as ordered at the KY/ TN state line. Kentucky State Police and Whitley County Sheriff's Office then continued the pursuit. The vehicle finally was stopped, and the driver fled on foot. The driver was apprehended by KSP. Scotty Inman was the driver and showed to have a Revoked TN driver license. He is currently housed in the Whitley County Jail in Kentucky..

NARRATIVE
On July 22, 2020 I was patrolling West Emory Rd. A light in color sedan passed me going east bound. My LPR showed the vehicle stolen. I checked the information and tag to see if it was correct, I turned around and began to follow the vehicle. I notified my dispatch of the vehicle and asked in there were any KCSO units in the area available. The vehicle continued to Central Ave and turned right onto Emory Rd failing to stop for a red light.. The vehicle then went on 175 south. I observed multiple traffic infractions but waited for additional units before I attempted a felony traffic stop. The vehicle took the I640 East exit and crossed the median line. I then initiated my emergency equipment. The vehicle failed to stop. The vehicle Beige in color Toyota Camry was reported stolen by Clinton PD per my dispatch. The vehicle was pursued through Knox County, Anderson County, and Campbell County. During the pursuit the vehicle almost struck multiple vehicles and showed little regard for the motoring public. Speeds at times were excess of 100MPH. The vehicle speed through active construction zones in Knox County, while workers were present. The vehicle came close to striking another vehicle from the rear. I terminated as ordered at the KY/ TN state line. Kentucky State Police and Whitley County Sheriff's Office then continued the pursuit. The vehicle finally was stopped, and the driver fled on foot. The driver was apprehended by KSP. Scotty Inman was the driver and showed to have a Revoked TN driver license. He is currently housed in the Whitley County Jail in Kentucky.
